

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE AND IMPARTIALITY OF
SENIOR MANAGEMENT

The Management System Conformity Assessment Body (hereinafter referred to as the MSCAB) understands the importance of independence and impartiality when carrying out product and system certification activities.

The senior management of the Management System Conformity Assessment Body hereby declares that the organization will provide certification services guided by the principles of impartiality, objectivity and strict avoidance of conflicts of interest.

The senior management of the Management System Conformity Assessment Body is fully committed to the principles of impartiality and independence, understands the importance of their implementation and will not exert any pressure on responsible bodies or persons to approve certification decisions.

The internal procedures of the Management System Conformity Assessment Body comply with international requirements for impartiality and independence. The Management System Conformity Assessment Body has trained all personnel involved in certification activities, as well as other employees, in these requirements.

The Management System Conformity Assessment Body's senior management demonstrates impartiality in its interactions with clients, identifying and addressing actual or potential threats to this principle arising from any internal or external factors. Management also emphasizes the importance of independence, as it does not tolerate any pressure from clients and/or organizations at any level and is committed to upholding this principle.

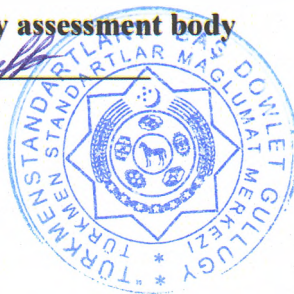

Senior Management of the Conformity Assessment Body Management Systems hereby declares that the organization receives financial support solely from its certification activities and fees paid by certified clients. Fees charged to clients are available upon request.

MSCAB declares that it will not offer certification to other certification bodies, provide consulting services on issues related to the certification scheme, or conduct internal audits for its certified clients.

MSCAB declares that it will not outsource audits to consulting organizations specializing in management systems and will not offer its services in connection with its activities.

This statement complies with the Management System Conformity Assessment Body's Impartiality Ensuring Mechanism and the corresponding procedure. It will remain valid until amended or modified in accordance with the established procedure.

Management system conformity assessment body
Director – Meredov M.B.

Organization code: 311952463, address: Turkmenistan, Ashgabat, ..... district,

Email: ....., website: .....